

About Defensive Populace

To help build a vigilant society and preserve our God-given liberties.

The Defensive Populace brings comprehensive articles on how armed citizens can be more effective at defending themselves using force multipliers, various tactics and strategies. Firearm courses are also available, please see the Defensive Courses page for details.

Just as important as being able to defend yourself, defending your rights to do just this is as important. Creating awareness in preserving our fundamental rights to keep and bear arms protected by the Second Amendment in the United States Constitution. Each day politicians are trying to attack our liberties and attempting to strip our inalienable rights in the name of false security, deception, and scare tactics. Don't they understand "shall not be infringed?"

Politically correct is to silence those who don't agree with, which is a form of censorship. That being said, this site is all about facts and logic. Just because you're offended, it doesn't mean you're right.
